SONG WAS SILENCED

And the Singer was Mourned, Even by His Enemies

(Associated Press)

London, Sept. 9.—The following little story of the front trenches is contained in a letter from a British soldier serving in France:

"The Saxons used to have a chap with them named Paul, who had a lovely voice and used to sing all the latest songs. He was easily heard in our front trenches, and his songs were enjoyed by our fellows as well as the Germans. One day when things were quiet there was no singing, and one of our men called out to the Germans, 'Tell Paul to sing.' Back came the answer, preceded by a string of guttural German curses: 'You chuted Paul yesterday.'"

FRENCH CHILDREN UNDER FIRE

In Spite of Incessant Bombardment, Instruction in Rheims Goes On

(Associated Press)

Rheims, France, Sept. 9.—With a daily average of 1,300 pupils attending school, above and below ground, in Rheims during the last eighteen months under intermittent bombardment, not a single injury or accident has happened to any of the scholars. Classes have to be interrupted for days at a time, but the fact never lessens the zeal of the teachers or the diligence of the pupils, though the enemy is not more than 2,000 yards off.

To a large extent the classes are held in the cellars and wine-caves of the town, in some instances two stories below the surface of the street. There the air is more humid and there is less light than in the ordinary schoolroom above ground, but otherwise there is little difference in the conditions or the routine.

When a bombardment begins some of the children show signs of fear; not always for themselves but for father or mother whom they think must be in danger. When the bombardment has completely ceased the children are dismissed and sent home. The streets are then safe excepting the exterior boulevards where the children are warned not to go.

Some of the school scenes are tragic, others comic notwithstanding tragic surroundings. A class will be at work when suddenly a servant opens the door and calls out that "they are bombarding close by." A second or two later the noise of a shell bursting on a nearby house makes the smaller children tremble and cry. At once the classes are led down into the cellars, some of them carried by soldiers who have come in off the street to avoid shell splinters.

TOOK OFF THE WAR TAX

(Times-Union)

The internal revenue office for this state will hereafter be deprived of about $15,000 a month in receipts on account of repealing of the documentary and proprietary stamp schedules which became effective last night at 12 o'clock.

Announcement of the law going out of force was received by Collector H. H. Lewis yesterday afternoon in a telegram from Internal Revenue Commissioner Osborne, who requested that the public be notified immediately.

These two schedules are designated as schedule A, which are documentary stamps, and schedule B, which are proprietary stamps. They are repealed by act of Congress in passing the general revenue bill recently and in no way affect the special taxes on wines and cordials, which still are effective.

TEN CENTS A LOAF

Advised as Standard Price of Baker's Bread

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Recommendations to all bakers of the United States that the five-cent loaf of bread be abandoned and the ten-cent loaf standardized were made after considerable discussion at the closing session of the executive committee of the National Association of Master Bakers here yesterday. ## SOME PRETTY NAPKINS

The Ocala Chero-Cola company has been distributing to its patrons and friends in town and about the county 10,000 very handsome paper napkins, on which there is attractive advertising of the company's product, Chero-Cola.

Mr. Sam Leigh came to town yesterday afternoon, bringing with him half a dozen little 'gators, orphans of a nine-foot saurian, which he conquered after a fierce battle on the banks of the Oklawaha. Mr. Leigh presented the 'gatorlets to Pap Chambers, who gave them a safety harbor in Taylor's pond. There are now a number of young alligators in the pond, and the Star is not stuck on the proposition. Some night, one of them is going to finish growing up, become discontented with his happy home, sally out on the street and bite some unsuspecting citizen's leg off.

BRITAIN WILL NOT REPEAL BLACK LIST

Lord Cecil Says It is Purely a War Measure and Not Designed to Injure Trade

(Associated Press)

London, Sept. 9.—Lord Robert Cecil, minister of war trade, told the Associated Press that "it was not likely that Great Britain will change her black list policy at the request of the United States." Lord Cecil stated that a reply to the black list protest made by the United States may be expected soon. He said that the idea expressed in the American newspapers that Great Britain was adopting a deliberate policy to injure American trade was "purest moonshine," and declared that the black list was purely a war measure, and the impression that it is an entering wedge for trade after the war may be dismissed at once.
